Prayer Spotlight

Steve & Sharon Waite; Wytopitlock, ME Wytopitlock Baptist Church

We are in a small community in the southernmost part of what is known as The County (Aroostook County) here in Maine. Formally a productive logging community, we are now a town with a small population, but with people who need encouragement, comfort, and spiritual guidance. The neighboring communities, though small as well, are included in various activities going on in our town.

The church here has been with Village Missions since 1973! Often the comments from our church members focus on how Village Missions has been faithful to this area in sending leadership throughout these many years.

Please pray for Sharon and me as we minister to the various ones with many needs. Some of our people have recently faced tragic news, some have faced bad news in their health, and still others have seen God answering prayer in their lives and families.

Pray for our upcoming VBS this year and with the many preparations in the works. Pray that God would open eyes to the Gospel and others would grow in their walk with God. Pray for Sharon as she continues to battle with health issues. Pray for the deacon board leadership of our church to remain strong and focused on what God leads us to and through.

Ephesians 5:11b-12

Expose Them; Shameful to Mention Them

Today's Text: Ephesians 5:11b-12 (NIV)

but rather expose them (the fruitless deeds of darkness). It is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret.

Proverbs 6:23 (NIV)

For this command is a lamp, this teaching is a light, and correction and instruction are the way to life,

2 Timothy 3:15 (NIV)

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness,

Psalm 119:105 (NIV)

Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light on my path.

Psalm 119:18 (NIV)

Open my eyes that I may see wonderful things in your law.

Proverbs 28:13 (NIV)

Whoever conceals their sins does not prosper, but the one who confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

1 John 1:9 (NIV)

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Matthew 18:15-17 (NIV)

If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.' If they still refuse to listen, tell it to the church...

Galatians 6:1 (NIV)

Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted.

Ecclesiastes 12:14 (NIV)

For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil.

Romans 16:19b (NIV)

I want you to be wise about what is good, and innocent about what is evil.

Psalm 32:1-5 (NIV)

Blessed is the one whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered. Blessed is the one whose sin the LORD does not count against them and in whose spirit is no deceit. When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

Psalm 32:1-5 (NIV)

For day and night your hand was heavy on me; my strength was sapped as in the heat of summer. Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD." and you forgave the guilt of my sin.

Psalm 139:1-18, 23-24 (NIV)

You have searched me, LORD, and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you, LORD, know it completely. You hem me in behind and before, and you lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain. Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence? If I go to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there. If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast. If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me," even the darkness will not be darkness to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you. For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be. How precious to me are your thoughts, God!

Psalm 139:1-18, 23-24 (NIV)

Psalm 139:1-18, 23-24 (NIV)

Psalm 139:1-18, 23-24 (NIV)

How vast is the sum of them! Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand—when I awake, I am still with you.

Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
