Wishram is located on the Columbia River in South Central Washington. Just east of the trees and west of the wheat fields, we are an old railroad town of 324 residents (down from 1,500). The bar is our only commerce though we do have a school, post office, fire department and church.

God to raise up mature Christians to help with the work here. Not only has He worked in the lives of some of the people here, He has also sent other Christians to do the work He has for us. Pray with us as we attempt to reach those who are lost and don't even know it.

Do everything in love.

(1 Corinthians 16:14)

And we urge you, brothers and sisters, warn those who are idle and disruptive, encourage the disheartened, help the weak, be patient with everyone.

“In Everything” 1 Thessalonians 5:15

Make sure that nobody pays back wrong for wrong, but always strive to do what is good for each other and for everyone else.
