Prayer Spotlight

Nick & Sarah Picklesimer; Coram, MT
Canyon Community Church

Coram is a small town 30 miles from the growing city of Kalispell and 6 miles from Glacier National Park. Many of the people moved here when the Hungry Horse Dam was being built. After that the community became logging and mill based until many of the mills shut down. Now the economy is moving towards tourism and construction.

Prayer Spotlight

Nick & Sarah Picklesimer; Coram, MT
Canyon Community Church

Pray we can find ways to reach the unchurched in our community. We are starting to see more young families and children coming. As we look at starting a children's program pray for teachers and that we can reach more children in the area. This area has a large drug and alcohol problem. Pray we will find ways to minister to those who are struggling.

Ephesians 5:29-30
Just as Christ Does

Ephesians 5:21 (NIV)

Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

submit: voluntarily make yourself available (deploy yourself) for the benefit and defense of others

Ephesians 5:25 (NIV)

Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ
loved the church...

love: love is an action based on a commitment and supported by feelings

Ephesians 5:25b-27 (NIV)

and gave himself up for her to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless.

Ephesians 5:28 (NIV)

In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

Today's Text: Ephesians 5:29-30 (NIV)

After all, no one ever hated their own body, but they feed and care for their body, just as Christ does the church—for we are members of his body.

Romans 8:35-39 (NIV)

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? ... No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:35-39 (NIV)

Romans 5:8-10 (NIV)

But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him!

Romans 5:8-10 (NIV)

For if, while we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

Romans 8:34 (NIV)

Who then is the one who condemns?
No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

Romans 8:26-27 (NIV)

In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God.

Romans 8:31 (NIV)

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

2 Timothy 4:17-18 (NIV)

But the Lord stood at my side and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was delivered from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
