Our Struggle

Today's Text: Ephesians 6:12a (NIV)

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood...

This past week in abbreviated review

- Seahawks won a game that didn't matter and lost a game that counted.
- Four flawed individuals competed for two Senate seats; two flawed individuals lost, two flawed individuals won.
- Thousands of people migrated to the nations capital and stormed the capitol building.
- Thousands more died from COVID-19 this week
- The blame game entered a new frenzied state where flawed people accuse other flawed people of all sorts of atrocities (real and imagined).
- Tens of thousands of new babies were born in America

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Luke 13:24 (NIV)

Make every effort (strive, struggle) to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to.

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
