Christ Community Fellowship of Cardston

Cardston is located in the southwest corner of Alberta, where the flat prairies turn into the rolling foothills of the Rocky Mountains. A town of 3,500 people, Cardston is a farming and ranching community at heart. Like many of the surrounding communities in southern Alberta, it is predominantly Mormon (or Latter-Day Saint, as they like to be

Christ Community Fellowship of Cardston

Throughout the school year we host mid-week Bible studies, youth group, and the AWANA program. Pray that God will use these ministries to share the truth of His gospel with our community.

Pray for reconciliation in Christ and an open door for our church to minister to people on the Blackfoot Reserve that borders our community.

Bethel Baptist Church

Gorham, NY

Please pray for the people of Bethel Baptist Church as they wait for a full-time Village Missions pastor. Also pray for the 18 other churches in the U.S. and Canada that are waiting for a Village Missions pastor.

Exodus 4:18-31

Hearing that the LORD is concerned, leads to Worship.

Worship

Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth. (John 4:23-24)

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. (Romans 12:1)

Love

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.

(1 John 4:7-8)

Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.

(1 Peter 4:8)

Obedience

If you love me, keep my commands. (John 14:15)

This is how we know that we love the children of God: by loving God and carrying out his commands. In fact, this is love for God: to keep his commands.

And his commands are not burdensome, for everyone born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world, even our faith. (1 John 5:2-4)

Exodus 4:18-31 (NIV)

Then Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, “Let me return to my own people in Egypt to see if any of them are still alive.”

Jethro said, “Go, and I wish you well.”

Now the Lord had said to Moses in Midian, “Go back to Egypt, for all those who wanted to kill you are dead.” So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey and started back to Egypt. And he took the staff of God in his hand.

Exodus 4:18-31 (NIV)

The Lord said to Moses, “When you return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders I have given you the power to do. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go. Then say to Pharaoh, ‘This is what the Lord says: Israel is my firstborn son, and I told you, “Let my son go, so he may worship me.” But you refused to let him go; so I will kill your firstborn son.’”

Exodus 4:18-31 (NIV)

At a lodging place on the way, the Lord met Moses and was about to kill him. But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin and touched Moses' feet with it. "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me," she said. So the Lord let him alone. (At that time she said "bridegroom of blood," referring to circumcision.)

The Lord said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." So he met Moses at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Exodus 4:18-31 (NIV)

Then Moses told Aaron everything the Lord had sent him to say, and also about all the signs he had commanded him to perform.

Moses and Aaron brought together all the elders of the Israelites, and Aaron told them everything the Lord had said to Moses. He also performed the signs before the people, and they believed. And when they heard that the Lord was concerned about them and had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshiped.

Numbers 6:24-26 (NIV)

The LORD bless you and keep you;
the LORD make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
