Prayer Spotlight

Keith & Kim Walker; Pahrump, NV
Pahrump Community Church

Pahrump is located about an hour west of Las Vegas, NV. Though the field was historically rural, it is now more “rurban.” In 1968, when VM first began serving the only evangelical church here, the population was in the hundreds. Now we have 45,000 residents and more than thirty churches. Retirees make up over 30% of the population of Pahrump and over 50% of Pahrump Community Church.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

Our associate pastor (Caleb & Amy Walker) will soon be assigned to their own VM field! We praise God for leading them. Pray that we would find the right assistant pastor for the next season of ministry. Pray for our outreach into the community, especially among younger families. Pray for our efforts to raise up leaders from within our congregation.

Open Field Spotlight

Tekoa Community Church Tekoa, WA

Tekoa is one of our new fields in 2022! Please pray for the people of Tekoa Community Church as they wait for their first full-time Village Missions pastor.

Also pray for the 19 other churches in the U.S. and Canada that are waiting for a Village Missions pastor.

Building Up North River Community Church

On January 6th 2022, the North River began to rise with the snow melt and rain. At dinnertime, I (Travis) got an email from an Elder of the church who lives upriver. He told me that I'd better get out with my family because the river was higher than he'd ever seen. Two hours later the river had risen from the swamp area 20 feet behind our house, wrapped its way around the garage and began to fill the garage as we loaded up a final set of couches into a neighbor's trailer. My family and I waded through the knee length, quickly moving water in the front of our house to our van to stay at this neighbor's house for the night. We left it all in the Lord's hands. The next day we discovered that there had been two feet of water in both the parsonage and church.

There was a flood similar to this that happened here in 2009. Everyone thought that this was a hundred year flood. They spend a lot of time and effort to rebuild the church and parsonage then. Having this happen again 12 years later has been discouraging for God's people here in the valley. This time, in addition to repairing the inside of both buildings--insulation, drywall, flooring, cabinets, we are raising up both buildings to a high enough level for future floods (3 or 4 feet). We are grateful that one builder is donating the lifting of the buildings, but we are still looking at a cost of 75,000 dollars to cover a contractor to rebuild the foundations and the other repairs. We as a church are able to fund 25,000, so we are looking at a need of 50,000. In giving to this campaign, you are not only helping to build up the church and parsonage literally, but are also spiritually building up God's people here and investing in future gospel ministry in the North River Valley for the glory of Jesus Christ!

Exodus 15:1-27

From Singing to Grumbling

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord:

“I will sing to the Lord,
for he is highly exalted.

Both horse and driver
he has hurled into the sea.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

“The Lord is my strength and my defense;

he has become my salvation.

He is my God, and I will praise him,

my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

The Lord is a warrior;

the Lord is his name.

Pharaoh’s chariots and his army

he has hurled into the sea.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

The best of Pharaoh's officers are drowned in the Red Sea.

The deep waters have covered them;

they sank to the depths like a stone.

Your right hand, Lord,

was majestic in power.

Your right hand, Lord,

shattered the enemy.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

“In the greatness of your majesty
you threw down those who opposed you.
You unleashed your burning anger;
it consumed them like stubble.
By the blast of your nostrils
the waters piled up.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

The surging waters stood up like a wall;
the deep waters congealed in the heart of the sea.

The enemy boasted,

‘I will pursue, I will overtake them.

I will divide the spoils;

I will gorge myself on them.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

I will draw my sword

and my hand will destroy them.'

But you blew with your breath,

and the sea covered them.

They sank like lead

in the mighty waters.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

Who among the gods
is like you, Lord?

Who is like you—
majestic in holiness,
awesome in glory,
working wonders?

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

“You stretch out your right hand,
and the earth swallows your enemies.
In your unfailing love you will lead
the people you have redeemed.
In your strength you will guide them
to your holy dwelling.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

The nations will hear and tremble;
anguish will grip the people of Philistia.
The chiefs of Edom will be terrified,
the leaders of Moab will be seized with trembling,
the people of Canaan will melt away;
terror and dread will fall on them.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

By the power of your arm

they will be as still as a stone—

until your people pass by, Lord, until the people you bought pass by.

You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain of your inheritance—

the place, Lord, you made for your dwelling,

the sanctuary, Lord, your hands established.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

“The Lord reigns for ever and ever.”

When Pharaoh’s horses, chariots and horsemen went into the sea, the Lord brought the waters of the sea back over them, but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground. Then Miriam the prophet, Aaron’s sister, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women followed her, with timbrels and dancing.

Exodus 15:1-21 (NIV)

Miriam sang to them:

“Sing to the Lord,
for he is highly exalted.

Both horse and driver
he has hurled into the sea.”

(Praise, thanksgiving verses) Hebrews 13:15-16 (NIV)

Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips that openly profess his name. And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

(Praise, thanksgiving verses) 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 (NIV)

Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

(Praise, thanksgiving verses) Psalm 69:30 (NIV)

I will praise God's name in song and glorify him with thanksgiving.

(Praise, thanksgiving verses) Psalm 100:1-5 (NIV)

A psalm. For giving grateful praise.

Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth. Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise; give thanks to him and praise his name. For the LORD is good and his love endures forever; his faithfulness continues through all generations.

(Praise, thanksgiving verses) Deuteronomy 32:1-4 (NIV)

Listen, you heavens, and I will speak; hear, you earth, the words of my mouth. Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew, like showers on the grass, like abundant rain on tender plants. I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Oh, praise the greatness of our God! He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he.

Exodus 15:22-27 (NIV)

Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea and they went into the Desert of Shur. For three days they traveled in the desert without finding water. When they came to Marah, they could not drink its water because it was bitter. (That is why the place is called Marah. So the people grumbled against Moses, saying, “What are we to drink?”)

Exodus 15:22-27 (NIV)

Then Moses cried out to the Lord, and the Lord showed him a piece of wood. He threw it into the water, and the water became fit to drink.

There the Lord issued a ruling and instruction for them and put them to the test. He said, “If you listen carefully to the Lord your God and do what is right in his eyes, if you pay attention to his commands and keep all his decrees, I will not bring on you any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the Lord, who heals you.”

Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there near the water.

(complaint, grumbling verses) Philippians 2:14-16a (NIV)

Do everything without grumbling or arguing, so that you may become blameless and pure, “children of God without fault in a warped and crooked generation.” Then you will shine among them like stars in the sky as you hold firmly to the word of life.

Psalm 90 (NIV)

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

Lord, you have been our dwelling place
throughout all generations.

Before the mountains were born
or you brought forth the whole world,
from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

You turn people back to dust,
saying, "Return to dust, you mortals."

Psalm 90 (NIV)

A thousand years in your sight
are like a day that has just gone by,
or like a watch in the night.

Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death—

they are like the new grass of the morning:
In the morning it springs up new,
but by evening it is dry and withered.

Psalm 90 (NIV)

We are consumed by your anger
and terrified by your indignation.

You have set our iniquities before you,
our secret sins in the light of your presence.

All our days pass away under your wrath;
we finish our years with a moan.

Our days may come to seventy years,
or eighty, if our strength endures;

Psalm 90 (NIV)

yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow,

for they quickly pass, and we fly away.

If only we knew the power of your anger!

Your wrath is as great as the fear that is your due.

Teach us to number our days,

that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

Psalm 90 (NIV)

Relent, Lord! How long will it be?

Have compassion on your servants.

Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing
love,

that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.

Psalm 90 (NIV)

Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us,

for as many years as we have seen trouble.

May your deeds be shown to your servants,
your splendor to their children.

May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us;
establish the work of our hands for us—
yes, establish the work of our hands.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Numbers 6:24-26 (NIV)

The LORD bless you and keep you;
the LORD make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace.
