“Pardon me, sir, but it may interest you to know that lions live in the open savanna, not the jungle, and do the majority of their hunting at night...but why let facts get in the way of a popular folk song or a late-night snack?”

Prayer Spotlight

Heath & Hannah Lynn; Elk Plain, WA

Elk Plain Community Bible Church; Coastal NW District

Elk Plain Community Church is in Spanaway, WA, on the outskirts of Tacoma, an hour south of Seattle. This was once a rural area, but it has become more suburban, bringing the problems of crime, drugs, and homelessness. Most residents commute to the greater Seattle/Tacoma area for work. The church is filled with people who love Jesus and love each other.

PRAYER REQUESTS: Please pray for a good year of spiritual growth in all our ministries. We have a preschool, men's and women's ministries, a skateboarding outreach, AWANA, a youth group, and a seniors' ministry. Pray that God would keep the church united and focused on Christ and that we would live out our mission of evangelism and discipleship.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

He has shown you, O mortal, what is good.

And what does the LORD require of you?

To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8 (NIV)

Mark 9:30-37

What Were You Arguing About?

Mark 9:30-37 (NIV)

They left that place and passed through Galilee. Jesus did not want anyone to know where they were, because he was teaching his disciples. He said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise.” But they did not understand what he meant and were afraid to ask him about it.

Mark 9:30-37 (NIV)

They came to Capernaum. When he was in the house, he asked them, “What were you arguing about on the road?” But they kept quiet because on the way they had argued about who was the greatest.

Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, “Anyone who wants to be first must be the very last, and the servant of all.”

Mark 9:30-37 (NIV)

He took a little child whom he placed among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, “Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me.”

Philippians 2:1-11 (NIV)

Therefore if you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any common sharing in the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and of one mind. Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.

In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus:

Who, being in very nature God,

did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather, he made himself nothing

Philippians 2:1-11 (NIV)

by taking the very nature[b] of a servant,
being made in human likeness.

And being found in appearance as a man,
he humbled himself

by becoming obedient to death—
even death on a cross!

Therefore God exalted him to the highest place

Philippians 2:1-11 (NIV)

and gave him the name that is above every name,

that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,

in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord,

to the glory of God the Father.

Numbers 6:24-26 (NIV)

The LORD bless you and keep you;
the LORD make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
