Don't eat that!
It has nuts in it!

The exact moment young Colonel Sanders conceived his secret recipe for fried chicken.

Hello, my name is Idaho Montoya.
You peeled my father. Prepare to fry.

Horse Creek is in an isolated stretch along the Klamath River, with the nearest towns a 45-minute drive up or down river. As the only church for miles, we have a unique opportunity to represent Christ in the community. Our very visible location provides opportunities to interact with "drop-ins"—people who come looking for gas, Wi-Fi access, directions, or a phone. Even the local police have "borrowed" our phone occasionally.

PRAYER REQUESTS: Pray the Lord will open doors of ministry to those who come to the church's give-away bench looking for food or to the church with hungry spirits. Last year the McKinney Fire burned our neighboring community; pray for opportunities to reach out to the displaced families. The Lord is at work in the lives of our church members; pray that they will continue to build "iron sharpening iron" relationships that glorify God. A family new to our church is building a youth ministry a mile downriver. Pray for this ministry as it gets started. Pray for our VBS in July. Pray for the Gospel to go forth with power. Pray especially for transformed lives!

Matthew 9:36 (NIV)

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Mark 14:27-31

Sheep without a Shepherd

Mark 14:27-31 (NIV)

“You will all fall away,” Jesus told them,
“for it is written: ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

Mark 14:27-31 (NIV)

Peter declared, “Even if all fall away, I will not.”

“Truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “today—yes, tonight—before the rooster crows twice you yourself will disown me three times.”

Mark 14:27-31 (NIV)

But Peter insisted emphatically, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you.” And all the others said the same.

Proverbs 16:18 (NIV)

Pride goes before destruction, a haughty spirit before a fall.

Matthew 9:35-38 (NIV)

Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.”

Mark 6:34 (NIV)

When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

Judges 21:25 (NIV)

In those days Israel had no king;
everyone did as they saw fit.

(NKJV) In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Psalm 23 (NIV)

A psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.

He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters,
he refreshes my soul.

He guides me along the right paths
for his name's sake.

Psalm 23 (NIV)

Even though I walk
through the darkest valley,
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.

Psalm 23 (NIV)

You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Surely your goodness and love will follow me
all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
