When my wife caught me standing on the bathroom scales, sucking in my stomach, she laughed,

“Ha! That’s not going to help!”

“Sure it does,” I said. “It’s the only way I can see the numbers.”

Mark 15:21-32

The King Crucified

Mark 15:21-32 (NIV)

A certain man from Cyrene, Simon, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was passing by on his way in from the country, and they forced him to carry the cross. They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means “the place of the skull”).

Mark 15:21-32 (NIV)

Then they offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it. And they crucified him. Dividing up his clothes, they cast lots to see what each would get.

Mark 15:21-32 (NIV)

It was nine in the morning when they crucified him. The written notice of the charge against him read: THE KING OF THE JEWS.

Mark 15:21-32 (NIV)

They crucified two rebels with him, one on his right and one on his left. Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads and saying, “So! You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days, come down from the cross and save yourself!”

Mark 15:21-32 (NIV)

In the same way the chief priests and the teachers of the law mocked him among themselves. “He saved others,” they said, “but he can’t save himself! Let this Messiah, this king of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe.” Those crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
