Prayer Spotlight

Jay & Mary Bucci; Moxie, PA

Moxie Community Church; East Coast District

Our community is in the beautiful Endless Mountains region of north-central Pennsylvania. Wyalusing is home to a baseball glove factory and a beef processing plant. These workplaces, as well as various truck driving opportunities, are the main means of work.

Moxie Community Church; East Coast District

There are some community events throughout the year, but our main opportunities for reaching the lost are through one-on-one contacts and through meeting people connected to the congregation.

PRAYER REQUESTS: Praise the Lord for the many people taking the Contenders Discipleship Initiative courses at our church.

Prayer Spotlight

Moxie Community Church; East Coast District

Pray that we can manage our time wisely to visit our congregation and meet their neighbors, families, and loved ones in the area.

Pray for opportunities to bless the Volunteer Fire Department. Pray that we can influence them with the Gospel. Pray that upcoming outreach events point people to Christ.

Romans 8:18-39

He Who Searches

Our Hearts

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. For the creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed.

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God.

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption to sonship, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved.

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God.

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written:

“For your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

Romans 8:18-39 (NIV)

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Ephesians 3:20-21 (NIV)

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
