Prayer Spotlight

Aaron & Suzanne McNally; Valleyford, WA
Valleyford Community Church; Inland NW District

Valleyford is located a few miles south of Spokane and Spokane Valley, in the area known as the Palouse. There are several farms in the area. New homes are being built as families move to the country. Some of these families now regularly attend our church, so we decided to expand the nursery.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

Pray for unity and harmony.

Praise for recent growth! Pray that we would all grow together toward spiritual health.

Etiquette and Expectations

Luke 14:1-24

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

It happened that when He went into the house of one of the leaders of the Pharisees on the Sabbath to eat bread, they were watching Him closely. And there in front of Him was a man suffering from edema.

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

And Jesus responded and said to the lawyers and Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?” But they kept silent.

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

And He took hold of him and healed him, and sent him away. And He said to them, “Which one of you will have a son or an ox fall into a well, and will not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?” And they could offer no reply to this.

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

Now He began telling a parable to the invited guests when He noticed how they had been picking out the places of honor at the table, saying to them,

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

“Whenever you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for someone more distinguished than you may have been invited by him, and the one who invited you both will come and say to you, ‘Give your place to this person,’ and then in disgrace you will proceed to occupy the last place.

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

But whenever you are invited, go and take the last place, so that when the one who has invited you comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will have honor in the sight of all who are dining at the table with you.

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

Now He also went on to say to the one who had invited Him, “Whenever you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers, your relatives, nor wealthy neighbors, otherwise they may also invite you to a meal in return, and that will be your repayment.

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

But whenever you give a banquet, invite people who are poor, who have disabilities, who are limping, and people who are blind; and you will be blessed, since they do not have the means to repay you; for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

Now when one of those who were reclining at the table with Him heard this, he said to Him, “Blessed is everyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!”

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

But He said to him, “A man was giving a big dinner, and he invited many; and at the dinner hour he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, because everything is ready now.’ And yet they all alike began to make excuses.

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

The first one said to him, 'I purchased a field and I need to go out to look at it; please consider me excused.' And another one said, 'I bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out; please consider me excused.' And another one said, 'I took a woman as my wife, and for that reason I cannot come.'

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

And the slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the head of the household became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out at once into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here those who are poor, those with disabilities, those who are blind, and those who are limping.'

Luke 14:1-24 (NASB)

And later the slave said, ‘Master, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.’ And the master said to the slave, ‘Go out into the roads and the hedges and press upon them to come in, so that my house will be filled. For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my dinner.’”

Numbers 6:24-26 (NASB)

The LORD bless you, and keep you;
The LORD cause His face to shine on you, and be gracious to you; The LORD lift up His face to you, and give you peace.
