Prayer Spotlight

Steven & Catherine Knorr; Double Adobe, AZ
Valley Bible Church; Southwest District

Double Adobe is about 10 miles from Mexico and 30 miles southeast of Tombstone, Arizona. A copper mine and smelter once supported the area. Now you find scattered ranchers, retirees, off-gridgers, and homesteaders. Many who wish to avoid society and legislation are attracted to this area. Challenges we witness regularly include poverty, cult influence, addiction, suicide, domestic violence, isolation, and trafficking.

PRAYER REQUESTS: Pray for God's protection over the youth of this community as the cartels target them. Pray for God to reveal to us how to reach the hidden population of off-gridgers and homesteaders.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

Pray for our physical endurance through the oppressive summer heat.

What Authority?

Luke 20:9-19

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

But He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard and leased it to vine-growers, and went on a journey for a long time.

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

At the harvest time he sent a slave to the vine-growers, so that they would give him his share of the produce of the vineyard; but the vine-growers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

And he proceeded to send another slave; but they beat him also and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

And he proceeded to send a third; but this one too they wounded and threw out.

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

Now the owner of the vineyard said, 'What am I to do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.' But when the vine-growers saw him, they discussed with one another, saying, 'This is the heir; let's kill him so that the inheritance will be ours.'

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

And so they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them? He will come and put these vine-growers to death, and will give the vineyard to others.”

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

However, when they heard this, they said, “May it never happen!”

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

But Jesus looked at them and said, “Then what is this statement that has been written: ‘A stone which the builders rejected, This has become the chief cornerstone’?”

Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will crush him.”

Luke 20:9-19 (NASB)

The scribes and the chief priests tried to lay hands on Him that very hour, and yet they feared the people; for they were aware that He had spoken this parable against them.

Numbers 6:24-26 (NASB)

The LORD bless you, and keep you;
The LORD cause His face to shine on you, and be gracious to you; The LORD lift up His face to you, and give you peace.
