Did nothing take in scorn.

Innocence and Acquiescence

Luke 22:66-23:25

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

When it was day, the Council of elders of the people assembled, both chief priests and scribes, and they led Him away to their council chamber, saying, “If You are the Christ, tell us.”

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

But He said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe; and if I ask a question, you will not answer. But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.”

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

And they all said, “So You are the Son of God?” And He said to them, “You say correctly that I am.” And then they said, “What further need do we have of testimony? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth!”

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

Then the entire assembly of them set out and brought Him before Pilate. And they began to bring charges against Him, saying, “We found this Man misleading our nation and forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is Christ, a King.”

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

Now Pilate asked Him, saying, “So You are the King of the Jews?” And He answered him and said, “It is as you say.” But Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, “I find no grounds for charges in the case of this Man.”

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

But they kept on insisting, saying, “He is stirring up the people, teaching all over Judea, starting from Galilee, as far as this place!”

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

Now when Pilate heard this, he asked whether the Man was a Galilean. And when he learned that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, since he also was in Jerusalem at this time.

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

Now Herod was overjoyed when he saw Jesus; for he had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had been hearing about Him and was hoping to see some sign performed by Him. And he questioned Him at some length; but He offered him no answer at all.

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

Now the chief priests and the scribes stood there, vehemently charging Him. And Herod, together with his soldiers, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, dressing Him in a brightly shining robe, and sent Him back to Pilate.

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

And so Herod and Pilate became friends with one another that very day; for previously, they had been enemies toward each other.

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

Now Pilate summoned to himself the chief priests, the rulers, and the people, and he said to them, “You brought this Man to me on the ground that He is inciting the people to revolt; and behold, after examining Him before you, I have found no basis at all in the case of this Man for the charges which you are bringing against Him. No, nor has Herod, for he sent Him back to us; and behold, nothing deserving death has been done by Him.

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

Therefore I will punish Him and release Him.” [Now he was obligated to release to them at the feast one prisoner.]

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

But they cried out all together, saying, “Away with this Man, and release to us Barabbas!” (He was one who had been thrown into prison for a revolt that took place in the city, and for murder.)

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

But Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again, but they kept on crying out, saying, “Crucify, crucify Him!” And he said to them a third time, “Why, what has this Man done wrong? I have found in His case no grounds for a sentence of death; therefore I will punish Him and release Him.”

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

But they were insistent, with loud voices, demanding that He be crucified. And their voices began to prevail. And so Pilate decided to have their demand carried out.

Luke 22:66-23:25 (NASB)

And he released the man for whom they were asking, who had been thrown into prison for a revolt and murder; but he handed Jesus over to their will.

Numbers 6:24-26 (NASB)

The LORD bless you, and keep you;
The LORD cause His face to shine on you, and be gracious to you; The LORD lift up His face to you, and give you peace.
